Denise Morris

Manager, Policy, The Investor Office
Ontario Securities Commission (OSC)

Denise Morris is the Manager of Policy for the Investor Office at the Ontario Securities Commission. Her role includes leading the Investor Office's policy initiatives, including the OSC's Seniors Strategy and providing the investor perspective into the development of OSC policies, rules and operational activities.

Denise's expansive legal career includes experience with regulators, financial institutions and investors. Prior to joining the Investor Office, Denise worked in the Compliance and Registrant Regulation branch of the OSC and was involved in regulatory policy and operational work. Prior to joining the Commission, she worked as Manager, Investigations at the Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments. She was previously legal counsel for a number of national investment dealers.

Denise also serves on the board of directors of the National Initiative for the Care of the Elderly (NICE), an international network of researchers, practitioners, students and seniors dedicated to improving the care of older adults, both in Canada and abroad. Denise holds a law degree from the University of Ottawa and received her MA from Carleton University.
